

Enjoy a magical Christmas in The Lake District

As the winter frost sparkles over the Cumbrian hills and the scent of mulled wine fills the air, Lakeland Hotel Kendal becomes a cosy haven for festive indulgence. Whether you're joining us for a sparkling Festive Dinner, a sumptuous seasonal lunch, or a peaceful winter retreat, our team is here to make your celebrations truly unforgettable.

From flickering candles to twinkling trees, every corner of our hotel is dressed to impress this holiday season. Let us take care of the details while you relax, reconnect, and revel in the joy of Christmas in the heart of the Lake District.

Whether you're visiting for a winter getaway or celebrating the season with loved ones, we've curated the perfect mix of merriment, culture, and countryside charm to make your stay magical.

For some inspiration

- Start your day with a hearty festive breakfast in our cosy restaurant, complete with warm pastries and a sprinkle of cinnamon.
- Stretch your legs with a brisk walk up to Kendal Castle—enjoy frosty views over the town and picture-perfect photo moments.
- Afternoon Adventures
- Meander through the twinkling Kendal Christmas Markets, brimming with handmade gifts, mulled wine, and seasonal cheer.
- Explore Abbot Hall, a beautiful gallery where winter exhibitions blend classic art with contemporary surprises.
- Little ones (and the young at heart) will love the “Three Little Pigs” family theatre show at Brewery Arts, running 20–28 December.
- Evening Escapes
- Cosy up at the hotel with hot chocolate or a festive tippie from our lounge bar.
- Catch a show—like Kate Bush tribute “Cloudbusting” or comedian Josie Long—right in town during select December evenings.

Or simply take a peaceful winter stroll through Serpentine Woods, returning to a warm welcome and a festive nightcap.

Whether you're walking under the stars, enjoying a show, or shopping for the perfect gift, Kendal offers a festive experience filled with joy and excitement.
